REMARKS

25X1

1. Local residents estimated that Camp Dölle was occupied by about 3,000 men in early July 1950. Artillery, AAA and AT artillery units marched to the camp. The access roads to the camp were blocked by artillery troops.

2. Trucks each pulling an about 50-mm AT gun, and four prime movers, each pulling a 180-mm to 200-mm gun, were enroute to the camp, coming from the direction of Salchau.

* Comment: A report dated 30 June 1950 stated that the Dölle Camp in the Letzling Heath was only occupied by a guard detail. See The unit in the camp in early July 1950 cannot be definitely identified as it is not likely that elements belong to the 19th Gds Meez Div, 207th Mts Rifle Div and 3rd Gds AAA Div. The 19th Gds Meez Div has been carried in the southern section of Letzling Heath and units of the 207th Mts Rifle Div in the northern section, Camp Rottendorf.
